Help, We Need Articles

If you have agreed to provide an article for the newsletter, please make sure we have it in time. There have been so many great articles and I do appreciate them. When I have to do all the articles I get cranky. Your editor, Jim Mueller

Monthly Meetings

Autocrosses and Hillclimbs don't "just happen". A bunch of very dedicated enthusiasts and workers make them happen. I know there are a bunch of you who want to make them happen, as you show up at each event.

We would like you to come to our meetings and see what you can do to make our events better and

Events 7& 8 and IROC

The weather was perfect, the competition was awesome, the courses were challenging, and the Ducks and Beavers kicked butt. What more could you want?

We have 81 trophy winners for 2012 in 35 different classes. Those winners are shown elsewhere in this newsletter. Trophy winners should definitely come to the year-end banquet. We always have a great time.

IROC competitors had a different course, and I actually didn't see too many drivers get lost or hitting as huge number of cones. Thanks to Aaron at TireSport for the tires for our borrowed IROC Car.

Coming in October is the OSI shootout, hosted by ACCO at the Coburg site. Register to try your luck against other drivers from around the state. Drivers who placed first or second in their class are eligible. Check out the EESCC qualifiers on the website and in the newsletter. Follow the link on the ACCO website. www.autoxclub.org

Actual Insurance Claim Forms

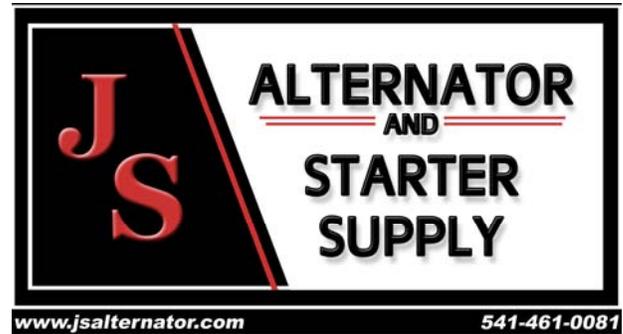

The following assortment of statements have been collected from real insurance claims. After an incident or accident, drivers submit their forms to the insurance company explaining what happened. They are asked to give the details succinctly, using the fewest possible words. The outcome can be extremely funny!

Car Accidents...

- I collided with a stationary truck coming the other way.
- As I approached an intersection a sign suddenly appeared in a place where no stop sign had ever appeared before. I was unable to stop in time to avoid the accident.
- My car was legally parked as it backed into another vehicle.
- The other car collided with mine without giving warning of its intention.
- A truck backed through my windshield into my wife's face.
- I had been out shopping for the garden all morning. I was driving home and as I approached the junction a hedge sprang up, obscuring my vision so I could not see the other vehicle.
- I was on the way to the doctor with rear end trouble when my universal joint gave way causing me to have an accident.
- I told the police that I was not injured, but on removing my hat, I found that I had a fractured skull.
- The indirect cause of the accident was a little guy in a small car with a big mouth.
- I started to slow down but the traffic was more stationary than I thought.

Incidents with Pedestrians

- The guy was all over the road. I had to swerve a number of times before I hit him.
- I was sure the old fellow would never make it to the other side of the road when I struck him.

- To avoid hitting the bumper of the car in front I struck a pedestrian.
- The pedestrian had no idea which way to run as I ran over him.
- The car in front hit the pedestrian but he got up so I hit him again.
- I saw a slow moving, sad faced old gentleman as he bounced off the roof of my car.
- A pedestrian hit me and went under my car.
- I saw her look at me twice. She appeared to be making slow progress when we met on impact.

Collision and Calamity

Some drivers can have accidents even when there are no pedestrians or other vehicles in sight...

- Coming home I drove into the wrong house and collided with a tree I don't have.
- I pulled away from the side of the road, glanced at my mother-in-law and headed over the embankment.
- I thought my window was down, but I found it was up when I put my head through it.
- In an attempt to kill a fly, I drove into a telephone pole.
- The gentleman behind me struck me on the backside. He then went to rest in a bush with just his rear end showing.
- I was thrown from my car as it left the road. I was later found in a ditch by some stray cows.
- The telephone pole was approaching. I was attempting to swerve out of the way when I struck the front end.
- I pulled in to the side of the road because there was smoke coming from under the hood. I realized there was a fire in the engine, so I took my dog and smothered it with a blanket.
- The accident occurred when I was attempting to bring my car out of a skid by steering it into the other vehicle.

Who is to Blame?

Drivers are often asked to explain on the insurance claim form who they think was to blame for the accident...

- The indirect cause of the accident was a little guy in a small car with a big mouth.
- I was going at about 70 or 80 mph when my girlfriend on the pillion reached over and grabbed my testicles so I lost control.
- On approach to the traffic lights the car in front suddenly broke.
- I had been learning to drive with power steering. I turned the wheel to what I thought was enough and found myself in a different direction going the opposite way.
- The accident happened when the right front door of a car came round the corner without giving a signal.
- I had been driving for forty years when I fell asleep at the wheel and had an accident.
- An invisible car came out of nowhere, struck my car and vanished.
